If you need to apply for a

Canadian study permit and request a work permit with an application indicating that you also want to apply for a study permit and eligibility questions

You need a work permit to participate in the work integrated learning component of your program if you are receiving academic credit for which you can only use this work permit for an NBCC arranged workplace

Check work permit is a separate type of work eligibility for any type of part-time work authorization granted by your study permit. Read more here:
